The Street, Clacton-On-Sea Offers over £10,000,000

PLANNING PASSED FOR 98 HOMES- This outstanding development opportunity is situated in the highly sought after Weeley in Little Clacton boasting full planning permission for 98 units including three, four, five bedroom houses and bungalows. There is a pre app currently in to add an extra 24 units totalling 122 units, this will replace some larger homes to two/three bed houses. The plot offers developers an extraordinary chance to craft a truly exceptional community.

The development will benefit from being within close proximity to Weeley and Thorpe-Le-Soken Railway Stations, as well as various local amenities. Weeley Heath, a sought-after village in Little Clacton near Clacton On Sea surrounded by open fields, presents a picturesque setting with all necessities easily accessible and offers convenient access to essentials with a nearby convenience store and features a Village Hall hosting a range of social events.

For socializing with friends and family, there are several eateries and pubs in the vicinity, all known for their welcoming atmospheres and high-quality food and drinks. The village's own railway station connects to Colchester in 25 minutes, Chelmsford in an hour, and Central London in just 90 minutes. For a broader shopping and entertainment experience, Clacton, Frinton, and Colchester, located 4, 7, and 12 miles away respectively, offer a diverse array of modern supermarkets, high street brands, independent boutiques, trendy coffee shops, restaurants, and entertainment options.
