Accommodation:

You enter the home directly from the front, and pass through a storm porch and then into the lounge.

The lounge sets the standard for the sizes in the bungalow, and enjoys the view into the street. From the lounge there is access to the kitchen.

The kitchen provides a good amount of storage space, as well as plenty of work space, and then there is the oven, hob and hood which will remain. Tiling to the floor and walls mean this area is easy to keep clean and tidy. From the kitchen there is access to the garden and an open doorway to the inner hallway which provides access to the remainder of the accommodation.

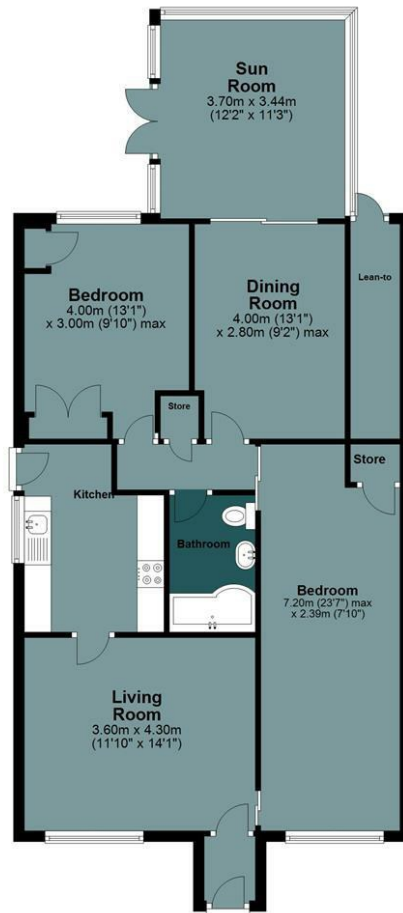

There are two bedrooms in this section of the home, the first bedroom offers a view into the garden, and bedroom 2, originally the garage, has been added in the current owners time.

There is also a dining room, at the back of the home, a great spot for entertaining, but could also easily be utilised as a bedroom if you so wished.

.The bathroom, which is central to the home, has been renewed in the current owners occupation and offers a "P" shaped bath with shower screen and shower above, a vanity wash and basin with cupboards under and w.c. Heated towel rail to remain. Finished in contrasting complimentary ceramics.

Completing the accommodation is a conservatory with views to three aspects
