* A CHARMING HOME IN THE HEART OF WALKINGTON VILLAGE, PACKED WITH CHARACTER AND SITUATED ON A FANTASTIC PLOT WITH OUTBUILDINGS ****

Killerby House is a truly outstanding and charming country home. A house of distinction with a history dating back some three centuries in the centre of Walkington village. This former farmhouse has a beautiful frontage onto the main street of the village, but it offers much more than meets the eye. Having been sympathetically extended at various points in its history, it now provides a spacious and light-filled home which showcases a wonderful mixture of traditional country features with a contemporary modern twist – the perfect blend of old and new.

Walkington is a beautiful, vibrant and picturesque village just outside the popular Georgian market town of Beverley - the ideal location for those seeking the best of town and country living. With endless open countryside for those wonderful leisurely strolls, a selection of popular public houses serving food and drink, a local village shop, a highly regarded primary school – not to forget the lovely village duckpond - all on your doorstep, what's
