£735,000

An attractive detached stone built cottage with versatile accommodation providing 5 double bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and 3 reception rooms along with attractive gardens and a double garage.

The property has well presented and characterful accommodation set over three floors comprising; an entrance hall, 3 reception areas to include a sitting room, living room and dining room as well as a large kitchen/dining room, utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor there are 4 double bedrooms, study area and bathroom. On the second floor a master double bedroom with en-suite. Character features including the inglenook fireplace and exposed ceiling timbers.

The cottage is Grade II listed, built of stone under a slate roof, and dates back to the late 17th century with later additions including a modern extension by the current owner in 2011. It is setback from the road on a private plot with gated access, parking for several cars, attractive gardens front & rear plus a double garage.

Yardley Gobion is a popular village and the property is a short walking distance from village facilities to include a pub, shop, primary and pre schools and church. More extensive facilities can be found in the nearby historic towns of Stony Stratford and Towcester, and Milton Keynes city centre and railway station are around 15 minute drive.

This is a fabulous home with a good combination of traditional living space and features along with modern living spaces such as a large open plan kitchen and dining area. The extension with independent access offers the scope for an annex or home-based office facility.
