

The Henrietta

Covent Garden | WC2

| tavistockbow

This wonderfully proportioned lateral apartment occupies the entire second floor of The Henrietta, a handsome period building forming part of the Covent Garden Estate, adjacent to St. Paul's Church and one of only a handful of residential blocks located directly on Covent Garden's iconic Piazza.

Behind the black lacquered door from Henrietta Street, a welcoming entrance and grand staircase lead to all floors, with each apartment benefitting from direct lift access.

A dedicated building manager is shared with sister building The Russell, with 24 hour security, street cleaning and estate-wide landscaping provided by the Covent Garden Estate team.

Developed by Capco with architects Argent Design in 2012, The Henrietta was Covent Garden's first landmark luxury residential scheme, featuring only four carefully considered apartments and highly prized to this day for its architectural heritage, meticulous attention to detail and enviable location.
