Overview

On the third floor, walk-up, of a period building just a few streets from the world-famous Covent Garden Piazza, this two double-bedroom apartment has a modern aesthetic. A stunning pitched roof in the reception room gives an air of space and draws on the building's character. Tucked off the reception room is an open-plan kitchen with white units and a black worktop. Both bedrooms have useful storage, the master bedroom has an ensuite shower room and there is also a further guest bathroom. Secondary glazing is fitted throughout.

Catherine Street is one street that makes up the Opera Quarter, which has developed into a hub for foodies with restaurants like the Opera Tavern and Angela Hartnett's Cafe Murano. Buses frequently operate from nearby Aldwych, while underground services are accessible at Covent Garden (Piccadilly Line), Holborn (Central and Piccadilly Lines) and Charing Cross (Bakerloo and Northern Lines) as well as mainline services out of London.

London is a collection of inspiring urban villages and one of the most exciting places in the world to live, work & play.

People Make Places

We work with both property owners and their occupiers, sharing the story of these vibrant neighbourhoods, conveying the unique soul & energy to future custodians, the people who'll keep them buzzing.

And unlike many real estate businesses we're not just about buildings, because streets & buildings don't make a neighbourhood.

We're about building relationships, because people make places.
