Accommodation

Stoup Cottage beautifully combines timeless character with contemporary living. The original cottage, brimming with charming period features, is complemented by a spacious, light-filled modern extension, creating a harmonious blend of old and new.

The front door opens into a light and airy glass framed entrance hall providing access to the ground floor accommodation. To the left of the entrance hall is the original cottage and a step up to the right leads to the contemporary extension, home to an impressive and vaulted open plan living kitchen. The open plan living kitchen spans to approximately 35 ft. providing a wonderful space that's filled with natural light and seamlessly flows out to the garden through both bi-folds and a French door. The kitchen area itself has a comprehensive range of modern fitted units with a variety of integrated appliances, space for an American fridge freezer and a large central island with a breakfast bar. There is ample space for dining furniture, soft seating and an inset gas fire.

Adjacent to the kitchen, in the original part of the house there are two spacious reception rooms. The living room is a well-proportioned room with beams to the ceiling, and a beautiful Inglenook fireplace housing a free-standing multi-fuel stove. The dining room is another generously sized room featuring a window seat and an inset multi-fuel stove with a stone surround. Beyond the dining room there is a large boot room spanning the depth of the property offering further storage and a stable door out to the driveway. Just off the boot room is a downstairs cloakroom and a utility room offering ample space and plumbing for further white goods.

To the first floor there are four double bedrooms and two bathrooms. The principal bedroom is a spacious room with a triple aspect allowing plenty of light and is complete with a dressing area, and an ensuite shower room. A particular highlight to note is the wonderful views, offering a charming perspective over the village rooftops and the church spire.

The further three bedrooms are well-proportioned, one with built-in wardrobes and all three sharing the family bathroom. The family bathroom comprises a shower bath, wash hand basin, low flush lavatory and heated towel rail.

Outside

Externally, the property sits on a generous, south-facing plot of approximately quarter of an acre. To the right hand side of the property is a large driveway providing ample off-road parking and an oversized double garage with electric doors. The garage has recently undergone a comprehensive renovation, including the installation of a new roof, full internal insulation—complete with an insulated loft space—and a complete rewiring. This versatile space is perfect for use as a double garage, workshop, studio, or home office, offering both functionality and modern comfort.

A curved wall separates the driveway from the garden with a hand gate to either end providing access into the garden. The garden has been beautifully landscaped by the current owners with a variety of patios, a timber and brick built pergola, a summer house and a large lawn with a multitude of mature planting and specimen trees. The garden is fully enclosed with hedging, walling or fencing on all sides offering a wonderfully private and secure outdoor space to enjoy throughout the year.
