

Crown House Crown Lane, Tinwell, Stamford, PE9 3UF

Set in an idyllic situation on a quiet lane with no-through traffic, this beautifully presented 17th century grade II listed cottage simply must be viewed to be appreciated.

The property has well proportioned accommodation throughout comprising of: entrance hall, w/c, dining room with original quarry tiled floor which opens onto the sitting room with a large cosy inglenook fireplace. The kitchen has been refitted to an exceptionally high standard with features such as a fully functioning Aga, a ceramic butler sink, granite work surfaces and solid wooden units. The kitchen opens onto the garden room.

To the first floor is the principle bedroom with a stylish en-suite shower room and walk in dressing room/potential fourth bedroom. There are two further bedrooms and a large luxury family bathroom with walk in shower and freestanding bath on the first floor.

The property is situated in a mature plot with a wonderful private South facing garden to make the most of the afternoon sun. There is a patio terrace which leads from the garden room onto the lawned area which offers well stocked floral borders. The property also benefits from a detached one bedroom annex which would be ideal for either office or guest accommodation having its own shower room, as well as a large graveled driveway with off road parking for several vehicles.
