

Roman Road, E3

£650,000

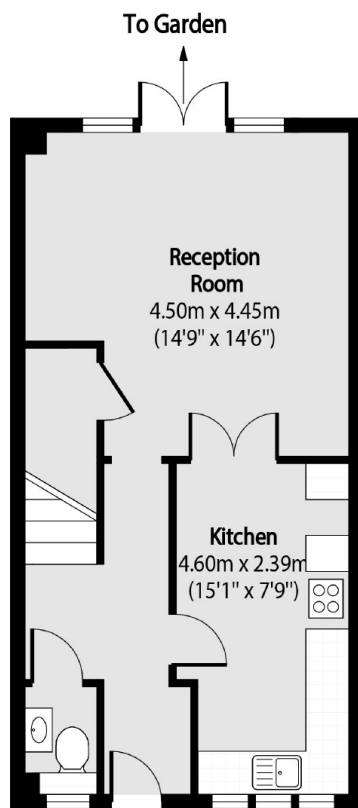

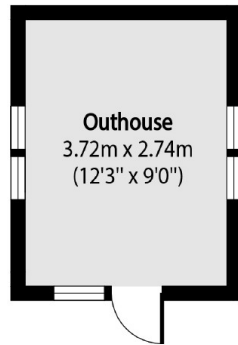

A two double bedroom freehold house, offering a private well maintained garden and loft space. This property also benefits from a separate living - kitchen area as well as being double glazed throughout. The reception area has floor to ceiling doors looking out onto the garden making for a bright and airy space, and in the garden is an outhouse which is supplied with electricity. As well as this, the property has a separate WC on the ground floor in addition to the family bathroom.

Ideally located half a mile away from both Victoria Park and Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, offering ample green spaces and amenities. The property also has great transport links with Bow Road and Mile End tube stations being under a mile away making for great links in and around the city.
