Institute Place, E8

Located within an iconic and popular building, formerly a school, this apartment was converted in 1997 from its previous life as a classroom. Now a fantastic entertaining space, it boasts triple height ceilings and stylish contemporary living throughout.

This is a work-from-home dream come true, with a large mezzanine level providing a second living space and view over the patio garden.

This unique apartment and building has many of the original features, including the original school entrance hall and exposed brickwork and steel beams in the apartment with a modern twist of sleek fixtures and fittings.
