Move Inn presents this spacious extended linked terraced home to the market.

The first floor comprises four bedrooms, all with fitted wardrobes, including three decent-sized rooms and a freshly renovated en-suite in one, as well as the main family bathroom, perfect for a growing family. Downstairs, you'll find a through lounge, an extended kitchen and dining room ideal for entertaining, downstairs W.C and a storage area.

Outside, the rear garden with side gated access offers plenty of outdoor space and features a golf putting layout for family fun. The rear also includes a good-sized annex with electricity supply, tiled floor, and ample storage cabinets. This versatile space can be used as an office, guest room, or for any other need.

With potential for further development (subject to planning permission), this home presents an excellent opportunity for enhancement. The property is well-lit and ventilated throughout and is ready to move in. The property also has security alarms and cameras installed for additional security and comes with ample parking space on the driveway.

Located in the sought-after area of Heston, this home is within the catchment area for many reputable local schools and is within walking distance of Hounslow West Underground Station. For motorists, the A4/M4 provides access to Central London, Heathrow Airport, and neighboring towns.

Suitable for first-time buyers, investors, and home movers, this property is not to be missed. Call us today to book a viewing!
