The Farmhouse

This charming farmhouse has been thoughtfully modernised, blending contemporary comfort with a classic country style. The spacious interior is well-proportioned, offering three impressive reception rooms, including a striking conservatory snug that flows into the sitting room with a cosy wood-burning stove. In addition to the five bedrooms—one of which is currently used as a study—the property features three bathrooms, including a generously sized en-suite to the master bedroom. The landscaped garden is laid to lawn, gently sloping down to a tranquil wooded boundary.

The Land

A key highlight of Spite House is its land, fully enclosed within a secure ring fence, offering excellent potential for either a small commercial enterprise or a hobby farm. The fields benefit from reliable access to water, with strong, well-maintained fences and gates. Enjoying sweeping views across the rolling countryside, the land provides complete privacy, with the farmhouse situated below and accessed via a private driveway, ensuring a peaceful and secluded setting away from the road.
