Burntstump Hill, Arnold, Nottinghamshire NG5 8PQ

This exquisite former school of the Seely Estate has been beautifully transformed into a captivating four-bedroom family home. Seamlessly marrying original charm with modern design elements, this detached residence radiates sophistication. Positioned on the outskirts of Burntstump Country Park, it grants easy access to Nottingham and neighboring regions, including the M1 Junction 27. Upon entering through the feature arched front door into the welcoming boot room, one is enveloped in a warm and inviting atmosphere. Internal doors lead to various spaces including the contemporary fitted breakfast kitchen with integrated appliances, a utility room, a sitting room, a conservatory, two bedrooms, and a bathroom. The focal point of the home is the striking vaulted living and dining room, boasting an exposed brick open fire place with a log-burner, a raised dining area, and an impressive 14'0 window opening out to the rear garden. Additional access leads to a cosy sitting room with a Victorian fireplace. Ascending the newly fitted oak spiral staircase reveals an airy mezzanine study area. Bedrooms one and two await on the first floor, with the master bedroom suite featuring a feature arched window, a walk-in wardrobe, and an en-suite shower room. Bedroom two offers an east-facing balcony accessed via French doors, providing delightful garden views, along with a snug and a shower room with an adjoining W/C. The property benefits from an oil-fired central heating system and a new electric fuse box in both the house and garage, ensuring energy efficiency. Externally, ample off-street parking is provided by an in-and-out gravel drive to the front elevation, leading to a double garage / workshop. Surrounded by approximately 0.75 acres of stunning mature gardens, the property offers well-maintained lawns, a private tree-lined aspect, a large patio area, greenhouse, vegetable patch, and two useful outbuildings, adding to its allure, along with plenty of sun exposure!
