Offers In The Region Of £1,000,000 - £1,100,000

, Thoroton, Nottinghamshire NG13 9DS

Nestled within the charming village of Thoroton, this substantial detached house, accompanied by a separate self-contained annexe, presents an exceptional opportunity for a growing family seeking their forever home. Immaculately presented throughout, the property exudes both elegance and functionality, boasting spacious accommodation set on a generous plot within picturesque surroundings. Centrally located, it enjoys swift access to major transport arteries, including the A46 dual carriageway to Newark and Leicester, and the A52 to Nottingham and Grantham, facilitating convenient travel to nearby amenities. From the initial entrance hall, one is greeted with an array of inviting reception areas, including a well-proportioned sitting room and a versatile study/playroom. However, the focal point of the home lies in its striking open-plan dining kitchen and living areas. The sleek contemporary kitchen fitted with high-end integrated appliances, flows effortlessly into a family room, creating a captivating hub for daily living and entertaining. A spacious utility room and ground floor W/C completes the ground floor. Ascending to the first floor reveals four double bedrooms, each adorned with modern en-suites and walk-in closets. The master suite includes a stylish four-piece bathroom featuring a freestanding bath. Adjacent to the main house, the self-contained annexe offers additional flexibility, with its own kitchen, shower room, and an open-plan studio-style reception/bedroom, complemented by the convenience of an integral double-width garage. Outside, the landscaped front and rear gardens beckon for outdoor enjoyment, with established trees and shrubs adding to the natural allure. The rear garden, with its expansive paved terrace and generous lawn, while the large gravelled driveway at the front, equipped with electric gated access, provides ample off-road parking.
