PREPARE TO BE IMPRESSED...

This substantial detached house, constructed in recent years, boasts spacious and versatile accommodation spanning three floors, all exceptionally well-presented throughout. The property benefits from an array of modern fixtures and fittings, including recessed spotlights and underfloor heating. Situated on a fantastic-sized corner plot at the beginning of a quiet cul-de-sac, it is in close proximity to various local amenities, including Bestwood and Gedling Country Park, and offers excellent commuting links and access to fantastic school catchments. The ground floor features an entrance hall with an oak atrium that floods the space with natural light and a central feature staircase. Additionally, there is a W/C, three reception rooms, a modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances and a central breakfast bar, and a utility room. The first floor hosts a large master bedroom equipped with its own dressing room and a four-piece en-suite, along with two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, and a four-piece bathroom suite. The second floor offers three more double bedrooms, serviced by an additional bathroom and another en-suite. Outside, the front garden includes a block-paved driveway and access to the double garage, while the rear boasts a generous-sized, well-maintained garden.
