MODERN FAMILY HOME...

Nestled in a popular residential area of Sherwood, this beautifully modernised and renovated 1930s semi-detached home seamlessly combines period character with modern convenience, ideally situated close to local amenities, including schools, shops, and parks. The ground floor boasts a generously sized living room, with ample space to incorporate a dining area, creating a versatile and welcoming space. The modern fitted kitchen is both stylish and functional, complemented by a convenient W/C and a sleek shower room featuring a wet-room-style shower. Upstairs, the first floor hosts three well-proportioned double bedrooms, each offering a comfortable and airy feel, with access leading to a loft room for additional storage or potential use. Outside, the front of the property benefits from a spacious driveway with multiple parking spaces, alongside a garage for extra convenience. The rear garden features a great-sized and well-maintained lawned area and a patio seating space, all enclosed by hedge boundaries ensuring privacy.
