IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You've a lovely broad hallway, with plenty of storage and incidental space, all too often overlooked extras in London apartments. Your artfully arranged, kitchen/reception comes in at around 300 square feet, with blonde hardwood floors underfoot, smoky grey and glossy white cabinets in the kitchen, and floods of natural light from the oversized, floor to ceiling window leading you to the balcony.

Out here and the wide London horizon is spread out before you. Sheltered, with a glazed balustrade to make the most of the view, it's a great spot to start or end the day. Back inside, and both bedrooms are substantial doubles, cosily carpeted with floor to ceiling windows and a sleek en suite shower room off the principal sleeper, tiled from floor to ceiling in large format smoky grey. Your main bathroom is finished to a similar five star standard, and home to a tub.

Outside and, as well as having the station so close, you're less than a half mile on foot from Walthamstow Village. Our renowned enclave is home to a diverse collection of wining and dining establishments, from classic gastropubs like The Queens Arms and The Castle, to more esoteric delights like Orford Road Tapas, the cocktail chic of Eat17 or the artisanal hedonism of Mother's Ruin. Whatever your tastes, mood or occasion, you're bound to find a new favourite spot.

WHAT ELSE?

- Our famous street market is just a seven minute stroll. The longest in Europe, with diverse street food a speciality.
- Walthamstow's beloved green gem of Lloyd Park is just fifteen minutes on foot or five by bike, for open green spaces, landscaped gardens and a wide range of sports clubs and classes.
- If you want still more transport options, Walthamstow Queen's Road overground is just a couple of minutes walk, for the Gospel Oak to barking Riverside line. Your direct connection to the River Thames.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"As soon as we saw this flat we fell in love with it. Great as a city pad, with Walthamstow's station a minute walk away you're in and out of the city in no time. However Walthamstow itself has so much to offer. With its independent breweries, pubs and bakeries it really feels like a village. And close enough to Epping forest, the Wetlands or numerous parks for your nature fix. Once inside the flat it feels like an oasis of calm complete with all modern amenities and probably the best view over all of London, we've really loved living here."
