IF YOU LIVED HERE...

To the front you'll find an immediate highlight - your striking, 200 square foot, lounge featuring an ultra covetable exposed brick wall, bright bay window, ornate vintage hearth and mantel and dramatic, dark rich hardwood flooring. Next door you'll find your double bedroom, with more of those smooth engineered floors and another feature fireplace with tiled surround.

The modern style bathroom is a sleek, monochrome affair, with glossy herringbone tiling, a heated towel rail and rainfall shower over the tub. Finally we have your generous, 120 square foot, kitchen and diner. Here the beautiful hardwood flooring and modern monochrome vibes continue, with plenty of matt black cabinets contrasting perfectly with chunky white marbled worktops and glossy splashbacks.

Outside, and you have plenty of green spaces to explore. Just a twenty minute stroll or five minute cycle brings you to the Lea Bridge Road entrance of the vast nature reserves of Hackney Marshes. Alternatively, take the opposite path and venture North into the lush, greenery of Walthamstow Marshes and Lea Valley. On your way home, grab a bite to eat or sample a local beer at your new local, The Hare & Hounds, or head over to Patchworks, a converted warehouse community space hosting everything from art exhibitions, to pop up food events, live music, open mic nights and DJs.

WHAT ELSE?

- Treat yourself to a really special dining experience at Supperclub.Tube, where Latin American inspired dishes are served in the surroundings of a decommissioned tube carriage underneath the Walthamstow Pumphouse Museum.
- For a range of fitness classes, state of the art gym, swimming pool, sauna and steam room, you'll make your way to Leyton Leisure Centre, less than a mile from your door.
- St James Street station is less than a mile on foot, or a speedy bike ride up protected cycleways, for direct eighteen minute runs to Liverpool Street.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"After moving to Walthamstow in 2016, as our first owned property together, we have really enjoyed lovingly renovating the house and watching the neighbourhood grow.

Perfectly located between Leyton's Francis Road, Walthamstow Market and Walthamstow Village for all their independent shops and restaurants, all just a short 20min walk away. We are lucky to have green spaces close by in every direction and have loved being close to Walthamstow Wetlands... Surrounded by a growing creative community and neighbours who have lived in the area for twenty plus years, there is a real collective feel to Walthamstow. Something you will soon see with all the events held throughout the year at the Townhall and nearby Llyod Park, from festivals, to bonfire nights, food markets and outdoor yoga!

We have been spoilt with several transport options all close by, St.James Street, Lea Bridge, Walthamstow Central and Blackhorse Road, all getting you around London in no time at all, but we have easily spent many weekends just enjoying the area. Favourites of ours have been Blackhorse Beer Mile, with all it's breweries and wineries, hosting live music and comedy events, all on our doorstep!

We have absolutely loved living here, and now we are married and looking to start a family, hopefully staying in the area, we hope you will enjoy the flat, the area and the community as much as we have."
