IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Set in a peaceful residential pocket of Walthamstow, this two-bedroom Victorian home is well located just 0.9 miles from Wood Street's lively mix of cafés, shops and the station, and only 0.4 miles from the much-loved Lloyd Park and William Morris Gallery. Epping Forest's open green spaces are also within easy reach (0.8 miles), making this an ideal spot for both weekend walks and weekday commutes. Chapel End continues to appeal to families and professionals alike, thanks to its green surroundings and excellent schools.

Inside, the open-plan double reception has already been extended into a 25-foot light-filled space with a bay window to the front and another overlooking the side return. The kitchen at the rear is laid out in an L-shape with cottage-style wood cabinetry, a handy breakfast bar, and a glazed door that leads to the conservatory and a practical downstairs WC.

Accessed through the conservatory, you'll find a generous garden just shy of 40 feet that begins with a patio and opens into a lush lawn flanked by planting beds—a great canvas for flexing your green thumb or simply relaxing in. A paved path leads to a shed tucked discreetly away behind a well-maintained hedge.

Upstairs are two generous double bedrooms, the larger with built-in storage and another classic bay window. A spacious family bathroom completes the first floor.

With good bones, this is a wonderful opportunity to exercise your creative vision and create the home of your dreams

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"For me it's the sheer variety you find in each pocket of Walthamstow that makes working and socialising here so enjoyable. Whether it's having a coffee from Perky Blenders, going for a Sunday morning walk in Epping Forest, dropping into one of the local breweries in Blackhorse Road, or catching up with friends in Lloyd Park, the growth and positive changes within E17 have been incredible in recent years."
