The property boasts beautiful features such as carefully restored floorboards, feature fireplaces and stunning cornicing. The first floor encompasses 2 double bedrooms and one smaller bedroom ideal for a child's room or home office. Outside, the garden has been part-decked making it perfect for barbecues, whilst remaining leafy and green- the best of both worlds.

York Road is located off Coppermill Lane, a short walk from the wonderful and popular Walthamstow marshes. The area has loads of transport options, being served by regular buses and Underground & Overground stations within close proximity.

WHAT ELSE?

- Walthamstow schools are quality and plentiful, you have four deemed 'Outstanding' just a short stroll away, with a further thirteen rated 'Good' and just as handy.
- Explore Walthamstow High Street further for Europe's longest street market, a wide range of supermarkets and the multiple retail offerings of the Walthamstow Mall.
- For a truly unique dining experience, book a table at supperclub.tube, less than ten minutes walk away, where you can enjoy a range of classic Latin American dishes in a decommissioned, luxuriously appointed tube carriage.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I have worked in Walthamstow for over 10 years, and I still enjoy the buzz in the area. From the scene in Walthamstow Central which offers Collab, Gokyuzu and the Empire cinema. Take a short stroll to the famous William Morris gallery which is located on the popular Lloyd Park surrounded by beautiful green scenery. Walthamstow Village has been a popular trend for me over the years with its bubbly night life and quirky pubs. My personal favourite is The Village Pub.

There are four trains stations in Walthamstow. Walthamstow Central, Wood Street, Blackhorse Road and Walthamstow Queens Road. I have commuted to and from Central London from Walthamstow Train Station which takes less than 20 minutes so I can see why Walthamstow has the nickname 'awesomestow'".
