IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'll have two of Walthamstow's more enviable neighbourhoods just moments away. Wood Street is one of the borough's most exciting new areas, with a growing vintage market and new shops, bars and cafes opening up all the time - try the burgers in The Duke and thank us later.

Meanwhile just a half mile to the west is Walthamstow's famous Lloyd Park. Wide open green spaces, landscaped gardens, cafes and courts play host to all manner of sports clubs and activity classes. Plus there's the William Morris Gallery and regular events like the Walthamstow Garden Party.

Inside, and the 170 square foot lounge is spacious, bright and airy with plush grey carpeting underfoot, contrast walls and a beautiful period mantelpiece. The bedroom is just as stylish while the bathroom has more engineered oak floors and pristine fittings.

WHAT ELSE?

- Wood Street Station is just under a mile away on foot and will get you into Liverpool Street in around 20 minutes.
- Alternatively Walthamstow Central is just one stop away, for the Empire Cinema and Walthamstow Mall.
- You also have a fairly comprehensive retail park, with a Homebase, Habitat and Argos, just a few moments away.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I have worked in Walthamstow for over 10 years, and I still enjoy the buzz in the area. From the scene in Walthamstow Central which offers Collab, Gokyuzu and the Empire cinema. Take a short stroll to the famous William Morris gallery which is located on the popular Lloyd Park surrounded by beautiful green scenery. Walthamstow Village has been a popular trend for me over the years with its bubbly night life and quirky pubs. My personal favourite is The Village Pub.

There are four train stations in Walthamstow. Walthamstow Central, Wood Street, Blackhorse Road and Walthamstow Queens Road. I have commuted to and from Central London from Walthamstow Train Station which takes less than 20 minutes so I can see why Walthamstow has the nickname 'awesomestow'".
