Summary

For sale is this appealing 2-bedroom terraced property, ideally suited for first-time buyers or investors. The house boasts a well-proportioned layout with a fitted kitchen to the front of the property and a comfortable lounge at the rear, offering access to an enclosed garden.

The property provides one single bedroom and a spacious double bedroom with the added benefit of built-in wardrobes. The family bathroom is well-maintained and completes the internal accommodation.

One of the significant advantages of this property is the exterior features. These include a garage in a block and on-road parking, adding convenience to your daily life. The property is sold with the added benefit of no onward chain, allowing for a potentially swift transaction.

Location-wise, the property is in a favourable area with public transport links, nearby schools, and local amenities.

This property is an excellent opportunity to acquire a home in a sought-after location. Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity.
