THE FLAT

Situated on the first floor of a charming period building, this conversion flat offers over 600 sq ft of space, two bedrooms, loft access (loft space is not allocated to the lease), cost effective lease charges due to the lease extension a few years ago with ground rent and service charge terms negotiated to £0 for ground rent and £0 regular service charge contribution.

The flat has a lovely split-level landing which is always popular with buyers as it offers both character charm and a feeling of more space.

There is built in storage cupboards as you will see noted on the floor plan and a variety of pleasing period features that include fireplace, floor boards, dado rails, ornate spindles and bay window.

The kitchen area will be especially popular with buyers as it has space for a dedicated dining table.

Whilst the location is popular for buyers in search of good transport links and sought-after schools, local recreation is another substantial consideration for this area.

TRANSPORT, RECREATION, CONVENiences and SCHOOLS

With an array of cafés, takeaways, restaurants, as well as Co-op supermarket in proximity of the property, the location is very convenient for every day life.

The area is thriving with recreation due to some of the green spaces and history in the locality.

Hilly Fields was formally farmland and saved from development by a group of enthusiasts including a co-founder of the National Trust, Octavia Hill. The park was opened in May 1896 and ever since has been a integral part of local life. The park has historic significance and is thought of by many locals as a golden pocket of south east London. Some of the facilities in the park include:

- Café
- Picnic area
- A dog exercise area
- A football pitch
- Cricket pitch
- Childrens play area
- Tennis courts
- Basketball court
- The highly acclaimed Francis Drake Bowls Club
- A highly acclaimed Stone Circle – granite stones erected in 2000 to celebrate the millennium
- Nature and conservation area
- A meadow

Ladywell Fields, (a mile long and made up of three fields with a river running through them), can be found just off Manwood Road and is one of the most popular spaces in proximity to the house. Some of the facilities and thing to enjoy at the fields include:

- play areas
- adventure playground
- ball courts
- skate park
- bowling green
- café
- cycle route (part of the Waterlink Way)
- the friends of park group
- water pumps
- river
- nature reserve
- tennis court
- toilets – including disabled facilities – open seven days a week during café opening hours

The highly acclaimed Rivoli Ballroom has a wonderful history and is one of the last remaining 1950's style Ballrooms left in London. It's located on Brockley Road in Crofton Park.

One Tree Hill which is just at the top of Honor Oak Rise and offers some of the most breath-taking views across London and the city skyline. Once a working woodland, this is now a wonderful green space enjoyed by the locals.

Blythe Hill Fields is known by the locals for its recreational facilities and regular events. One such facility is the Trim trail which is an exercise trail. They also have a great yearly festival for the local community to enjoy.
