For those that like green spaces and strolls in an interesting environment, Crystal Palace Park is an English Heritage Grade II listed park. It is said to be one of the largest parks in South London and one of the most significant parks in Britain. Its located approximately 0.1 mile from the property which adds substantial desirability factor to this property especially with local buyers who understand the appeal of being so close to the park.

The park is home to the National Sports Centre, several recreational activities and a variety of heritage features. There is lots to enjoy regularly in the park including:

- Crystal Palace Park Dinosaurs
- Italian Terraces
- Café
- Children's play area
- Former boating lake
- Maze
- Fishing lake
- Concert bowl
- Children's farm

Mayow Park is another popular local green space, known for its large and well-crafted landscape, well-kept tennis courts, nature reserves and so much more is also in the locality.

The local area is just packed with recreation, nature and history. Some other desirables include:

- A historic 18-hole golf course
- Local leisure centre and library which includes a swimming pool
- Sydenham Hill woods which is popular with walkers

Whilst Crystal Palace Park is a main attraction in this area, the lovely and little-known smaller Wells Park is also in proximity and is one of those little hidden gems. It has two playgrounds, tennis courts, basketball, conservation woodland, two ponds to name but a few attractions. Being surrounded by so much green space despite living in London is a truly lovely experience.

With Dulwich being one of the adjoining towns you might also spend a lot of time in Dulwich Park, Dulwich Village, and have dinner in East Dulwich. Dulwich has such a lovely selection of choice be it recreation (art galleries and parks) or dinning in the vast selection of restaurants and pubs in the Village or along Lordship Lane.

One of the greatest attractions in South East London (featured in Time Out) is The Horniman Museum and gardens. You might often go for walks there to enjoy the events and farmers market they regularly host.

Crystal Palace, Dulwich, Forest Hill and Sydenham towns offer many small independent high street conveniences including an award-winning butcher, some fantastic cafes, several boutique shops selling clothing and furniture as well as a few great modern gastro and family friendly pubs.

Crystal Palace is very popular for its Triangle, a combination of three roads next to Crystal Palace Park which have a selection of restaurants, bars, cafés, antique shops, boutique shops and gastro pubs as well as some of the well-known high street brands including Sainsburys.
