

Charles Bainbridge

Penny Black Cottage, 20 High Street,
Littlebourne, Canterbury, Kent, CT3 1ST

£265,000

A delightful Grade II listed period cottage in the heart of the popular village of Littlebourne providing deceptively spacious and well-presented accommodation and enjoys parking to the rear. The accommodation includes a sitting room to the front with a fireplace and to the rear is a large kitchen/dining room overlooking and opening onto the garden and also having a staircase rising to the first floor. On the first floor are two bedrooms, to the rear is a double bedroom with a large fitted wardrobe and to the front is a further bedroom with a bay window and access up to a mezzanine level that could provide useful study/office area as required. There is also a family bathroom. The property benefits from gas fired central heating and mainly secondary glazed windows.

There is an attractive garden to the rear with a brick-paved seating area, gravel areas and a path accessing a gate providing rear pedestrian access adjacent to the parking space. The main garden area measures approx. 15ft (4.57m) x 13ft 9 (4.19m) plus the path to the rear. From Nargate Street vehicular access is gained to the parking space adjacent to the rear gate.

The property is situated in the popular village of Littlebourne. The local amenities include a village shop with a post office, a popular primary school, a pub and doctors' surgery. The Cathedral City of Canterbury is easily accessible and offers an impressive range of shopping and leisure facilities, schools, colleges and universities plus the High-Speed rail link from Canterbury West station with services to London St. Pancras in approx. 55mins. The surrounding countryside provides lovely walking and cycling whilst the neighbouring village of Bridge provides further local facilities.

Services: All mains services are understood to be connected to the property.
