Property Description

◆ Beautiful Edwardian Family Home in the Heart of Spring Grove

Property Description

Set on the sought-after Thornbury Road in Isleworth's Spring Grove pocket, this elegant halls-adjoining Edwardian semi blends timeless character with considered modern living across three floors. Period highlights include tall three-panel bay windows, timber sash windows, original fireplaces, corniced ceilings, and exposed timber floorboards. Living spaces are bright and versatile: a generous through lounge, a twin-galley shaker kitchen with quartz worktops and garden-facing dining space, and a luxury four-piece family bathroom.

To the rear, French and patio doors open to a long, west-facing garden—laid to lawn with planting beds and a sandstone patio accessed from both lounge and kitchen—perfect for golden-hour dining, play, or quiet relaxation. In addition, the property presents exciting scope to further enhance the accommodation through a ground floor extension (subject to the usual planning consents), offering future owners the opportunity to expand and reconfigure living space while retaining the home's elegant Edwardian character.

A timber shed and side storage add practicality, while the original tiled pathway and established shrubs frame the handsome façade at the front. Thoughtfully upgraded and ideally placed for Osterley Park, Piccadilly Line connections, and excellent schools, this is Isleworth living at its best.
