£450,000

This charming period cottage is set on a spacious corner plot, offering an extended and well-presented home in a highly desirable location, with easy access to both Alderley Edge and Wilmslow.

The property features a modern and stylish interior, starting with a welcoming entrance hallway and a downstairs WC. The generously sized living room includes elegant ceiling coving, a feature fireplace, and a lovely south-facing bay window. A large dining room with garden views and additional storage space leads into a separate kitchen (with underfloor heating, space for washing machine and fridge-freezer), which has direct access to the rear garden, completing the ground floor.

Upstairs, the galleried landing provides access to two generously proportioned double bedrooms, each with fitted wardrobes. A beautifully refitted bathroom (with underfloor heating), complete with a freestanding bath and separate shower serves both bedrooms.

The property also offers a spacious loft area, which, subject to necessary permissions, could be converted into an additional bedroom with an en-suite.

There is one allocated parking space at the rear.
