Bildershaw, Bishop Auckland

DESCRIPTION

Stonehouse Chapel has been beautifully converted into a unique two bedroomed family home. Complete with a gated driveway, 10 stables, stone outbuildings and approx. 16 acres of land. The converted chapel retains a lot of traditional features and is full of character including a stunning spiral staircase. The conversion was completed to a high standard, including recent upgrades such as the new kitchen and bathroom. Sympathetic thought has been put into each fitting and fixture to ensure the updates paired perfectly with the older characteristics of this stone build. The stables and outbuildings have access to power and water supply as well as an alternative access separate from the home.

Pleasantly positioned within the quiet village Bildershaw near Bishop Auckland, surrounded by neighbouring farms, fields and countryside. Located just off the A68 which leads to the A1(M) and a short distance from local amenities including schools, supermarkets, retail stores, restaurants, cafes and high street shops.

The property has oil central heating and comprises;

Externally this family home has a gated driveway providing off street parking, a separate entrance is available for access to the outbuildings, 10 stables and approx. 16 acres of land.
