Kendal Street, Connaught Village, W2
£3,000 Per Month

This elegantly designed 5th-floor apartment, accessible via a lift, is situated within a highly sought-after portered development in the prestigious Connaught Village. Offering both convenience and sophistication, this prime location provides easy access to the boutique shops, cafés, and restaurants of the village while being just a short distance from Marble Arch and Paddington stations, ensuring excellent transport links across London and beyond.

The apartment itself boasts a bright and spacious reception room, thoughtfully designed to accommodate both relaxation and dining, creating a versatile living space. Large windows allow for an abundance of natural light, enhancing the sense of openness and comfort. The separate kitchen is well-appointed with modern appliances, sleek cabinetry, and ample countertop space, making it both functional and stylish.
