

Beckford Close, Kensington £750 Per Week

A fantastic opportunity to rent a two bedroom apartment on the second floor of this well run portered block, benefitting from a sunny terrace and a secure underground parking space.

The spacious accommodation comprises a well-proportioned reception room with dining area leading directly on to the south-east facing terrace. There is a separate fully fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms, an en-suite shower room and a bathroom. The property benefits from wooden floors throughout, 24 hour portering and an allocated parking space.

Warren House is superbly located for the shopping, leisure and transport amenities of both Earls Court and High Street Kensington, while it provides easy access to the A4 (towards Heathrow) out of London. Imperial College is also a short commute away for students
