Old Brompton Road, South Kensington £975 Per Week

Set within an elegant period building, this newly renovated garden apartment is impeccably presented. The spacious L-shaped living and dining area features pristine solid oak flooring throughout, with an abundance of natural light streaming through three sash windows that overlook a private patio, leading to beautifully maintained communal gardens.

The principal bedroom impresses with a generously sized en suite bathroom and a large walk-in wardrobe, while the second bedroom offers ample built-in storage and is served by a separate shower room.

Located on Old Brompton Road, the property is close to a variety of popular restaurants and bars, including Cambio De Tercio. It also benefits from excellent transport links, with South Kensington and Gloucester Road Stations (Circle, District, and Piccadilly Lines) within walking distance, providing easy access across the city. Additionally, it falls within the catchment area of the highly regarded Bousfield Primary School
