Mayday Gardens, SE3

This gorgeous three bedroom 1930's property has been renovated throughout, decorated in crisp neutral tones and represents an outstanding, turn-key opportunity in a popular residential location which makes this a first-class family accommodation. The outside of the property includes a deep front garden with off-street parking for multiple vehicles.

The quality is evident immediately, upon entering the house via a bright entrance hall through to a sumptuous front reception room with double-width pocket doors that interconnects with a modern dining room/kitchen which is fitted with modern sleek units, integral appliances and stone worktops. This boasts a superb, open-plan living space. The property has modern window shutters throughout.

Upstairs is very bright and also well appointed. There are two double bedrooms, a single bedroom and contemporary bathroom/WC.

The garden can be accessed through french doors, opening onto a delightful outdoor space with a paved patio. Steps lead up to a well maintained tiered landscaped garden that serves as a real suntrap. This outside space also offers a converted garage, complete with electricity and water, this offers excellent storage or has potential for other uses.
