Charlton Lane, SE7

On the ground floor, you'll find a separate reception room to the front, as well as another reception just behind it. The impressive kitchen and dining room was thoughtfully extended to create a stunning open-plan space that seamlessly leads out to a beautifully west facing garden.

For added space, the basement cellar provides excellent storage and the possibility to make it a full utility area. The property features four spacious double bedrooms which are split over the top two floors. One of the top-floor bedrooms boasts views over Canary Wharf and the rest of London. The four piece family bathroom is tastefully finished, complementing the home's overall aesthetic.
