Reynolds Place, SE3

A beautifully refurbished two-bedroom period home, perfectly positioned on this sought-after residential street in the heart of Blackheath.

Finished to an exceptional standard throughout, this stylish house features a large extended kitchen with sleek black crittall-style doors that open onto a private garden, flooding the space with natural light. The fitted kitchen flows seamlessly into a spacious, knocked-through reception and dining area ideal for entertaining and modern family living.

Upstairs, there are two generous double bedrooms and a stunning contemporary bathroom, all finished with thoughtful design and high-quality fittings.

Situated in a much sought after road, close to the shops, cafés and amenities at Blackheath Royal Standard and within close proximity of Leigh Academy and two outstanding primary schools. Westcombe Park Station is nearby and there are regular buses to North Greenwich for the Jubilee line.
