Situated on one of Blackheath's most desirable residential roads, Green Garth is a beautifully presented detached family home offering generous living space, elegant interiors and superb potential to extend further, subject to planning.

The property has a spacious front reception room with a double-glazed Greenwich Joinery bay window and a limestone open working fireplace. Across the back is a beautiful open-plan kitchen-dining space complete with second open fireplace, handmade Chalon ash kitchen and a dining area as an ideal space for entertaining and modern family living. From here, large doors open onto an exceptional 120 ft rear garden by RHS Chelsea Flower Show winners Hortus. This includes landscaped seating areas, a meadow flower garden with pond at the rear, timed evening lights and programmable watering system. Upstairs are four well-proportioned bedrooms and family bathroom, with potential to extend into the loft, at the rear or to the side.

The property includes gated off-street parking for four cars.

Annesley Road is a popular tree lined street within close proximity of the Heath and Greenwich Park. Blackheath Village with its restaurants, independent shops and coffee shops. Blackheath mainline station offers mainline connections to London Victoria, London Bridge and London Charing Cross.
