Finland Road, SE4

Situated on the sought-after Finland Road in the heart of SE4, this immaculately presented 3-bedroom Victorian mid-terrace house perfectly blends classic period charm with contemporary design. Renovated to an exceptional standard throughout, this home offers elegant living in one of Brockley's most desirable and well-connected neighbourhoods. Step inside to discover a beautifully designed interior where every detail has been carefully considered. The double reception room benefits from abundant natural light and showcases tasteful decor that complements the home's Victorian heritage. At the rear, the contemporary kitchen flows seamlessly onto a well-maintained, west facing garden, creating a perfect space for both relaxing and entertaining. Upstairs, you'll find three spacious bedrooms, each with ample storage and bathed in natural light. The family bathroom is finished to a high standard, combining luxury and functionality and has the added benefit of having a separate toilet. There are two loft spaces within the house, as well as a large cellar space too.

Located moments from Brockley and Nunhead stations, with direct links to London Bridge and beyond, this property is ideally positioned for commuters and families alike. A short stroll brings you to vibrant local cafés, parks, and highly rated Primary and Secondary schools, making this a truly outstanding place to call home.
