Endwell Road, SE4

While the property would benefit from internal modernisation, it presents an exciting opportunity to create a truly exceptional home. The accommodation includes five generously sized double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a separate WC, and a dedicated utility area. The expansive lounge/diner opens directly onto an east-facing rear garden, perfect for morning sun and outdoor entertaining. There's also a large, separate kitchen offering further potential for redesign.

Additional highlights include a private driveway and ample storage throughout. With its generous proportions and prime location, this property is full of potential and not to be missed.
