The busy town of Keith is situated in a stunning North East location at the start of Scotland's Famous Malt Whisky Trail. Keith and the surrounding villages and hamlets were most likely built to house the workers of the nearby mills and distilleries that are located in the heart of the Speyside Malt Whisky Trail. The town is home to three distilleries: Strathmill, Glen Keith and Strathisla distillery, one of the oldest in the Highlands. Keith is a busy little North-East town with a population of around 4700, situated on the main road and rail route between Inverness and Aberdeen. It can also boast of having a local steam train and station that runs to Dufftown.

The area has numerous leisure facilities, including, swimming pool, a links golf course, outdoor bowling green. There are several rivers a short drive from this property, some of which are renowned for their trout and salmon fishing. In the town, there are multiple local shops, restaurants, cafés, pubs, a major supermarket, an NHS health centre and a hospital. Primary and secondary schooling is also available within the town. A comprehensive East Coast bus and rail network operates through Keith. Easy access onto the A95 and A96 gives direct routing to Aberdeen in the east and Inverness to the west. Both cities offer excellent rail and bus service, with national and international flights being provided by Aberdeen Dyce and Inverness Dalcross Airports.
