Stamford Road, N1

You enter the property into an impressive hallway with bespoke carpentry and an integrated fish tank. Beautiful bespoke doors open into the reception space which has original coving, a veined marble fireplace, ceiling rose and original shutters. The space leads to the open plan kitchen/dining space, complete with limestone flooring that benefits from underfloor heating. The kitchen has a huge amount of storage, large dining space and an additional snug. There are large doors which provide access to the south east facing garden which comes complete with a bespoke outdoor kitchen.

The first floor has three double bedrooms along with the family bathroom. The top floor has a similar layout with a versatile large bedroom or reception room to the front, guest double bedroom, a family bathroom and a grand suite at the rear, complete with vaulted ceilings, walk through wardrobe and an en-suite shower room.
