51 Haven Way

Newhaven

Situated in the sought-after seaside town of Newhaven, this modern detached house offers a perfect blend of space, comfort, and contemporary design. The property boasts a prime location with easy access to the town centre and its array of amenities, including shops, schools, and public transportation options.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious dual-aspect lounge that floods the room with natural light, creating a welcoming and airy atmosphere. The dual-aspect kitchen dining room is perfect for both casual family meals and entertaining guests, offering a seamless flow between cooking, dining, and relaxing areas.

The property features three generously sized rooms that can easily accommodate a growing family or visiting guests. The master bedroom includes the added luxury of an en-suite shower room with a modern white suite, providing convenience and privacy.

The family bathroom features a pristine white suite, offering a tranquil space to unwind and relax after a long day. With thoughtful design elements and quality fixtures, this space exudes a sense of contemporary elegance.
