A spacious two-bedroom bungalow that makes you feel instantly at home. The welcoming hallway leads to a bright front bedroom with a charming bay window. A cosy yet roomy lounge/diner features an ornamental fireplace wall and flows into a versatile conservatory - perfect for your morning tea. With a practical kitchen, tiled shower room, and flexible second bedroom, comfort meets functionality throughout.

The property's exterior is thoughtfully landscaped with a decorative shingle and paved frontage, off-street parking, and an attached garage offering conversion potential (STPP). The rear garden is a split-level sanctuary, complete with a lawn, mature shrubbery, and a sense of privacy. Side access ensures easy movement between front and back, making garden maintenance and storage a breeze.

Nestled on a quiet road with minimal traffic, this home offers peaceful living without compromising on convenience. It's ideal for young families, with a nursery and primary school nearby. Interior

This spacious home begins up a small flight of steps and into the hallway. On the right as you enter, you'll find the first bedroom. A delightful double room and plenty of space for wardrobes, featuring a bright bay window overlooking the front garden area of the property. Heading to the left and further into the home is the roomy lounge/diner, with space for a four seater table and several sofas, while managing to retain it's cosy feel with the ornamental fireplace wall. From here, there is access to the conservatory via sliding doors, a versatile space but in our opinion, an ideal spot to enjoy a morning cup of tea. Further down the hallway you'll find the kitchen, complete with base and wall units for storage, with the additional bonus of a bay window nook, perfect for a small table and chairs to enjoy your breakfast on. From here there is also access to the rear garden, as well as the conservatory. The shower room is adjacent, comprising of large walk in shower, hand basin and low level W/C, in calming white and blue tones and fully tiled. Completing the home is the second bedroom, which could be used as an office area or hobby room, whatever would best suit your needs.

Exterior

The bungalow has many outdoor benefits, one being an attached garage with potential to convert into an additional living space (subject to the relevant permissions). The front of the property is charmingly landscaped with decorative shingle and paving, with fenced boundaries and a drive way space for off street parking. The rear of the garden is split level with a laid to lawn section being accessed via several steps up. The borders of the garden comprise of well maintained mature shrubbery, making the area feel more private. There is side access beside the home via a pavement meaning convenient manoeuvring of items to and from the front and rear gardens.

Location

This two bedroom bungalow is set down a quiet road that doesn't frequent much traffic. A peaceful setting for those looking for a slower pace. Being within close distance to the local primary and nursery school, you couldn't wish for more if you are a younger growing family. If you are a fan of the outdoors, here you are a short drive to Belfairs Wood's and park, a place to enjoy outings walking the dog or taking your little one to play. With easy access to the A127, there is plenty more within easy reach. Restaurants, food shops and retail establishments are never far, plus a short drive to the sea front makes for summer days enjoying beach strolls with an ice cream in hand.
