THE PROPERTY

The Ivy, 17 Lansdowne Road was built in 2007 within the garden of a neighbouring property having been designed in a period style to fit in nicely along the road. The house is prominent and impressive with the large double garage and utility space set on the lower ground floor. Planning permission has been granted here to convert to living space and there is certainly great flexibility to adapt to owners' requirements, subject to necessary planning consents. The middle floor is for living space and a fine reception room with wide triple aspect bayed window. The kitchen/dining room is a sociable dual aspect room with French doors onto a South facing terrace. Upstairs are four bedrooms and the luxurious family bath and shower room. This is an outstanding chance to secure a modern 4 bedroom family house with double garage in this sought after and incredibly convenient spot – recommended!

THE LOCATION

Lansdowne Road is much sought after by discerning home hunters appreciative of its remarkable position where fine & individual period properties lie so near to the seafront and beaches, the town and the harbourside.

The location is possibly as central as can be found, with so much of what excites about Falmouth on one's doorstep. Falmouth has a diverse selection of restaurants and an eclectic mixture of individual shops as well as national chains, together with quality galleries showcasing local talent.

Nearby train stations (Falmouth Town and Docks) provide a convenient link to the mainline at Truro for Exeter and London, Paddington.

There are five primary schools and one secondary school in the town and highly regarded independent preparatory and senior schools in Truro.

Falmouth boasts the third largest natural harbour in the world and is renowned for its maritime facilities which offer some of the best boating and sailing opportunities in the country. The town is consistently ranked as one of the top five places to live in the UK.
