THE LOCATION

Cadgwith is a lovely village where fishing is at the heart of everything going on. About 20 minutes' drive from the town of Helston and almost lost to time. One can imagine things being exactly the same 200 years ago. The pub is a great meeting place and Friday night is a particular favourite spot to be listening to the sea shanty songs. There are schools nearby at Mullion, as is a fantastic golf course. With so much to Cadgwith is remembered by many who have been lucky enough to stumble across it, whilst walking the Southwest Coastal Path. Trains to London are regular from Redruth, which is approximately a 40-minute drive away, while a service from Newquay Airport connects to the rest of the country and much of Europe.

THE PROPERTY

Built in 2020 to exacting standards this property is both detached and spacious. Nestled amongst the trees and countryside it blends in with the beauty of its surroundings thanks to the European red cedar cladding. With its position sitting above the village there is an abundance of natural light, privacy and peace. The accommodation is spacious and the decor well-presented, the open-plan living area is well designed and brings the outside in thanks to the huge balcony/terrace and large window and sliding patio doors. Should this be a home or holiday home we are sure the new owners will be delighted to hear how efficient it is to run....solar hot water, air source heat pump, argon filled uPVC double glazing and rainwater harvesting system for sanitary use.
