

94 Helston Road, Penryn

Guide Price £360,000 Freehold

A beautifully presented and delightful double-fronted listed town cottage. Providing versatility and space, together with character and originality. Three bedrooms, two social living rooms and a useful lower ground floor workshop/utility. Lovely enclosed and private rear garden. Stunning views across Penryn, Valley and surrounding countryside. Unrestricted resident's parking available and convenient access to Station, College, University and amenities.

THE LOCATION

Penryn is one of the oldest towns in Cornwall, having received its first charter in 1265; a full town of surprises and surrounded by lovely countryside. The building of Glasney College in 1265 placed the town on the map then the arrival of Falmouth and Exeter University turned Penryn into a buzzing and vibrant area. Many local sports clubs are active in the community including Penryn Football Club, St Gluvias Cricket Club and Penryn Rugby Club. Penryn is served by Penryn Primary Academy and Penryn College, whilst a 6th form can be found available at Falmouth School. The town enjoys good communication with Falmouth via its regular bus service and its train station nearby, which links to the city of Truro and mainline Paddington service. Falmouth town (approximately 2 miles) provides an eclectic and more comprehensive range of shopping, schooling, business and leisure facilities.

THE PROPERTY

Built in the mid-1800s, this charming character Grade II listed town cottage is conveniently located in the heart of Penryn and a few minutes walk to local amenities, the University campus, College and transport links including Penryn Train Station and a bus stop. There is a particular style and appeal to this elegant terrace of period cottages, with their attractive stone and render facades, four pane sash windows and granite steps to the front doors. The cottage is double-fronted and deceptively spacious accommodation with three first-floor bedrooms and a practical arrangement of "living" accommodation, providing an open plan and sociable living/dining room, plus kitchen/breakfast room, together with a delightful beamed sitting room with a wood burning stove. The interior is likely to charm and surprise, with original and stylish features, blending modern comforts and brightness making for a beautiful family home. Also to the ground floor is a charming inner hallway with a staircase to the first floor and a large modern family bathroom. To the rear, is an enclosed, mature and relatively private garden with some lovely valley and countryside views plus the versatility of two lower ground floor rooms with electricity and mains water currently used as Utility and Workshop with potential for Art Studio and Home Office with windows and door looking into garden. The road outside has unrestricted parking for residents but with a bus stop and train station providing real convenience for public transport leading to Falmouth or Truro City in the other direction. This beautiful home has much to offer in this great location and we wholeheartedly recommend a viewing to fully appreciate this cottage.
