THE PROPERTY

This likeable semi-detached, 1960s bungalow will be a great 'find' and opportunity for the right buyer. The lie of the land here allows for comfortable, single storey, two double bedroom living, set above a large and flexible garage and workshop space beneath. Views to the rear are lovely, overlooking the property's garden to rolling countryside beyond. Sliding patio doors from the kitchen/dining room lead out onto a superb balconied terrace spanning the breadth of the property, and enjoying this super outlook. The accommodation is light, bright and perfectly liveable 'as is', although requires some modernisation. The plot and garden here is a particular feature, having been planted and landscaped by its well known local horticulturalist owner. The rear, lower garden is a sheltered treat with its terrace, fine magnolia tree and specimen camellia and azalea. There is much to excite at 13, presenting a great chance in this highly regarded and popular village.

THE LOCATION

Carlidnack Close adjoins the valley and countryside and is located a few minutes' walk from Mawnan Smith village centre, and about 1.5 miles from Helford Passage and the river. Mawnan itself has good local amenities which include a well rated primary school, beautiful Norman Church, the 17th century Red Lion pub, a doctors' surgery and a general store with Post Office. The village square has a restaurant and small selection of shops whilst "The Old Smithy", with resident blacksmith, shows local arts and crafts. Areas of coastline and countryside surrounding the village are arguably amongst some of the finest found in Cornwall. Mawnan is also home to Trebah Garden, one of the Great Gardens of Cornwall, rated among the 80 finest gardens in the world and Glendurgan Garden, owned by the National Trust, with its intriguing cherry laurel maze.

Falmouth is about four miles away and accessed by a regular bus service.

OUTSIDE

FRONT

Twin posts from Carlidnack Close onto a tarmac driveway, about 55' long before turning around to hardstanding and parking space and into the garage. The front garden sets Number 13 nicely back from the Close road and is planted with established shrubs including camellias, azalea and hydrangea. Paved terraces and pathway to the front door. An oil tank sits on a stout raised concrete base.

REAR

The rear garden is a delightful place with some exceptional camellias, azaleas and a fine magnolia tree set around a large, sheltered paved terrace to enjoy summer sunshine for much of the day. Swathes of primrose, daffodils and a rhubarb patch. Elderly raised timber produce beds. Outside taps and lights.

BALCONIED TERRACE Spanning the rear of the property and accessed via sliding patio doors from the kitchen/dining room.

GARAGE & WORKSHOP This will be invaluable for some, great as a garage/workshop or gym perhaps. A flexible area of 'T' shape measuring 31' 3" (9.53m) across x 16' (4.88m) deep in the 'garage' area and 11' 5" (3.48m) deep reducing to 8' 5" (2.57m) elsewhere. Block built. Power and light. Oil-fired boiler. Electric Consumer Unit and tripping switches. Electric meter.

ALUMINIUM GREENHOUSE 10' x 10' (3.05m x 3.05m) The owner was a keen horticulturalist and this space has done some considerable 'growing' in its time. Concrete base, shelving and opening vents.
