Falmouth, or if you are a Cornish language enthusiast 'Aberfal', is a truly beautiful place to visit and reside. With its proximity to sheltered as well as unsheltered waters, Falmouth has long been a popular boating and water sports location; it boasts the world's third largest deep-water harbour and is the country's first and last major port. Falmouth is also famous for its classic working boats which can often be seen in all their glory sailing in the harbour. Falmouth often plays host as the start and/or finish line to many international sailing races including that of the famous Tall Ships. The main shopping area consists of an array of well-known high street names as well as some fine independent shops, cafés, restaurants and galleries. The Polytechnic provides frequent art exhibitions, stage performances and an art house cinema; The Merlin Cinema in Berkeley Vale having a more mainstream programme.
