The Property

We are delighted to present to the market this 1950's chalet bungalow positioned on a large plot which provides great potential for further scope (subject to planning permission approval). This much loved family home has been the subject of recent improvements to include a modern kitchen, modern bathroom and modern gas boiler. The accommodation comprises of, entrance hall, through lounge/diner, kitchen, sun lounge, ground floor bedroom and shower room. Upstairs there are 2 further bedrooms with views over the rear garden. Outside there is a large mature garden with fruit cage and greenhouse with garage to side and a double width driveway. Churchill Road is a highly popular road located close to the village High Street, schooling for all ages, open countryside, bus stops and local co-op store. Viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the property.

Material information to note:
