12 Westend, Dursley GL11 6JD

Occupying a prime non-estate position in the favoured Quarry locality with fabulous views across the River Severn to the Welsh Hills beyond, this impressive individual detached family home offers spacious accommodation arranged over three floors. Beautifully presented throughout the property has been refurbished by the current seller including a host of luxury features including a 21ft fully fitted kitchen/breakfast room with built in appliances, replaced internal doors and a second reception room. There are four double bedrooms with bedroom one offering a walk in dressing room with fitted wardrobes and luxury ensuite bathroom. Outside the gardens are easily managed to the rear and side and ample driveway providing off road parking to the front.

The views are a particular feature of this home which is situated on the outskirts of Cam, close to Woodfield Shops and local schools, having easy access to both Dursley Town and Cam Village. For those travelling further afield to the larger centres of Bristol, Gloucester and Cheltenham there are excellent commuting routes via the A38 and M5 Motorway and there is a mainline train station at Box Road; Cam, serving Bristol and London (Paddington) via Gloucester.
