Anti money laundering

Furthermore, HMRC changes have put a much greater emphasis on vendors, buyers and agents to ensure that we comply with their very stringent regulations associated with anti-money laundering. Due to the gravity of this and the potential serious financial penalties for not complying, we employ an outside firm to carry out these checks for a fee which will indemnify both us and you from any future prosecution. There is a charge of £45 per individual named on the title Deeds, therefore when Coadjute contact you to confirm instructions, they will also ask you to make this payment.
