Inside the house is arranged; entrance, front reception room, new kitchen diner, downstairs bathroom, stairs to the first floor landing, two double bedrooms. Outside there is a sunny aspect, low maintenance front and rear garden.

This property is beautifully presented, tasteful decorated and modernised throughout and would suit those looking for a 'turn key' property in a great location.

The property is thought to date back to the late 1800s' and typical of this period, has an element of 'single skin' construction, thus difficult to mortgage.
